NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The career of Louie Durham, the New York Glant, this season is without doubt the most termarkable case of "down and up" in baseball records. The Butchertowns beat him in the one game by a score of 4 to 2, and in another the Covingion Blues drove him from the slab.

Louie hiked to the Central League. The Fort Wayne (Ind.) team gave him a try. He lasted two innings, and was told that would be about all the sample that would be wanted from him.

Once more adrift Louie went to Indi-anapolis. He heard that Indianapolis was hard up for pitchers, and begged lowest rates to business people. Main 166.

to Louie Durham. But Louie begged so hard that Carr gave him a chance, and Louie was rapped hard. But he begged for another chance. "I feel myself coming," he said. "Just one more station, and I'll arrive all right."

Carr gave him another chance, and Louie began to make good. Since then he has won fourteen games and lost four, besides the initial effort.

Durham has won four double-headers in season. He shut out his former Louisville mates twice in an afternoon, when the Colonels were fighting for the lead in the American Association.
